Christian Prom Code of Conduct

1. As always, no Drugs, alcohol or weapons are allowed at the Christian Prom. There are police officers on site and they, as well as your parents, will be notified immediately if you are found to be in possession of these items.

2. In order to keep in line with biblical principles, we ask that you dress appropriately. Though it is hard to put a specific dress code in effect, we ask that the girls do their best to make sure the way in which they are dressed will not cause their Christian brothers to stumble, and vice versa. If we feel you are dressed inappropriately you will be provided with appropriate clothing to wear until you leave the prom.

3. We ask that the couples conduct themselves in a Godly manner while at the prom. This means no inappropriate dancing or touching. Repeat offenders of this rule will be asked to leave the prom.

4. Once you have left the prom, you are not allowed to come back in. If you need to retrieve something from your car, you must take a chaperon with you.

By signing this form, you acknowledge that the leaders of Christian prom can notify the parents and, if necessary, the police if the student is found to be in violation of any or all of these rules. I also understand that Christian Prom will be well supervised, yet even with proper supervision, accidents can occur. I am in agreement with 1st Corinthians 6:1-6 and will not hold the Christian Prom Committee responsible if my child is injured.
